 14. Do not bring reproach upon Christ (by) your Christian liberty – Verse 16-18
 15. Follow the things that make peace and edify others instead of making a hobby of meats, drinks, sabbaths, circumcision, lawkeeping, rituals, dress styles, ornaments, customs, and outward religion; things which in themselves do not destroy the work of God and concerning which all men will never perfectly agree – Verse 19,20, 1 Cor 8 4-13, 10 13-31
 16. Do not use any of the non-essentials to stumble or offend or make any man weak either by argument or practice – Verse 21
 17. Practice your faith before God and do not parade it before others – Verse 22
 18. Do not condemn yourself over anything not specifically forbidden in scripture by plain command; do not permit your conscience to be swayed by wrong religious background or constant religious turmoil over doubtful things – Verse 22
 19. Do not do anything that is doubtful if you are not clear on a matter, proceed no further – Verse 23, 1 Cor 8:7
 20. Bear the weakness of others. Tolerate their peculiar and sometimes ridiculous scruples until they become strong – Verse 23, Matt 5 1-3, 1 Cor 8 7-13, 10 23-31
